Jack Canfield: American writer (1944-) | Biography, Facts ...

Supposedly, after a series of “coincidental” events, Chicken Soup for the Soul was published and Canfield’s income shot up to $93,000. Of course, he tried it again with a $1 million check and – you guessed it – he received a million dollar check from his publisher which he naturally attributed to this “visualization” technique and the thoroughly New Age concept that “you can be what you will to be.”
