When you stop chasing, you can actually focus on being receptive—this is more attractive to a man. Just because you make a choice not to “chase” doesn't mean you have to be indifferent or cold to a man's affections. You can still show a receptive face and positive body language, which encourage your crush to keep pursuing you.

Wouldn't it be a huge blow to your ego? It's not like you need another reason for your self-esteem to go down, right? Thus, it only makes sense to let your man do the chasing. After all, they've been hardwired to chase what they desire and not to accept defeat. Chasing you will surely give his ego the kind of high it needs from time to time. 3.
